CASKIE ENGAGED IN HUBARD CASE

Will Assist Commonwealth's Attorney in Prosecution of Dr. Pettit's Slayer.

Lynchburg, Va., November 6.—George E. Caskie, the well known Lynchburg attorney, has recently become associated with Commonwealth's Attorney Whitehead, of Nelson county, in the prosecution of the case against Ben Hubbard in that county for the murder of Dr. J. A. Pettit in Livingston late in September, and Mr. Caskie is now actively engaged in preparation of the case.

The trial is to come up in the Circuit Court at Lovington before Judge Gordon on Tuesday morning of next week, at which time Hubbard will be arraigned for trial. While it is not certain that the case will then be brought into, it is probable that there will be no further delay.

From what can be learned about the prosecution in the case, it is thought the Commonwealth will make a stubborn fight against the insanity plea that seems certain to be the ground upon which the defense will seek to save Hubbard from the electric chair. It will be recalled that Dr. A. S. Priddy, superintendent of the State Epileptic Colony; Dr. J. S. DeJarnette, superintendent of the Western State Hospital at Staunton; and Dr. W. B. Perry, superintendent of the Central Hospital at Petersburg, were called in some weeks ago by the defense, and since that time they have had several conferences with Hubbard. The result of this, it is believed, is that each of these alienists will testify that Hubbard is insane, and therefore not responsible for the murder of Dr. Pettit.

On the other hand, it is said, the Commonwealth will admit that Hubbard was eccentric, but will hold, and at the same time attempt to prove, that Hubbard was responsible at the time of the murder for his deed. It is reported that Nelson county has been summoned to testify at the trial as to his sanity, but it is not known what the defense will do in addition to having the testimony of the three alienists. Whether it will rely entirely upon the statements of these physicians is not known now.

It is not believed now that the defense will ask for a change of venue, though it is not at all improbable that a change of venue will be found necessary. The case has been a topic of discussion in Nelson county now for about six weeks, and it would seem that it would be rather a difficult proposition next week to secure an impartial jury competent to sit in the case. It is probable, however, that a venire will be summoned from Nelson and then if trouble is experienced in getting the required panel of sixteen that an order would be entered by Judge Gordon to summon a venire from another county.

SCHOONERS AWAIT FAVORABLE WINDS

Twenty-Six Vessels Anchored in Hampton Roads—Col. West Closes Campaign.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Norfolk, Va., November 6.—Twenty-six schooners are anchored in Hampton Roads waiting for favorable winds to enable them to proceed northward. Some of them have been here a week or more waiting for a shift to the southward, but in vain. Provisions have become short, and many of the captains sent ashore to-day for more supplies. It is the greatest blockade seen here in five years.

Colonel J. E. West, of Suffolk, spoke to-night at Port Norfolk, closing the "Straightshots" campaign against fusion in Norfolk county.

Cincinnati Walker, who has been in the Norfolk jail for the past thirty days, was sent to Gloucester Court-house, where he will be tried for the murder of J. M. Shackelford.

The speedy motor boat Victor to-day made a run to Richmond, making the distance and return in ten hours. Mr. Dunn, the owner, spent an hour in Richmond cutting capers in the James before starting on the return to Norfolk. The only stop between the two cities was at Lower Brandon, where a supply of gasoline was obtained. The average time was twenty-three miles an hour.

J. Edward Cole, representing the Lynhaven Terminal Corporation, appeared before the Public Utility Commission of the City Council to-night and urged speedy action on his request for a franchise to construct a tunnel under the Elizabeth River, he offered to forfeit the franchise if work is not commenced in one year and the tunnel completed within five years.

He proposes to bring the trains of the railroads with terminals on the west side of the river into the new union station being built at the east end of Main Street. The proposed tunnel represents an investment of about $3,000,000.

"PEOPLE ASK ME WHAT I DO"

Mrs. Warwick Does Her Work and Takes Care of Her Three Little Children Without Difficulty.

Kokomo, Ind.—"I had been sick for twelve weeks," says Mrs. Matilda Warwick, of this place, "when I commenced to use Cardui. I was almost dead. I could not sit up, and nobody thought I would get well."

I had three of the best doctors in Kokomo, but they did not help me a bit. I was getting worse all the time, when a lady friend of mine told me to try Cardui. My husband got me a bottle of Cardui, and a few doses relieved my trouble.

If it had not been for Cardui I believe I would have been dead. Now I am feeling well and strong. I can do my housework and take care of three little children.

People ask me what I do to have such good health, and I tell them I use Cardui. One of my friends is using it now, and is getting along fine. I will never be without Cardui in my house."

Cardui is a vegetable extract, composed of valuable medicinal ingredients, which build up vitality and strengthen the womanly constitution.

During the past 50 years Cardui has helped thousands of weak women to health and strength. If you suffer from any symptoms of womanly trouble, try Cardui. It will surely help you.

MUTINY CHARGE AGAINST SEAMEN

Wilmington, N. C., November 6.—Charged before United States Commissioner George Harris with mutiny, in that they refused to obey the order of Captain Joseph Louis, master of the schooner Victor C. Records, which was towed into this port a week ago by the revenue cutter Seminole, after having encountered a recent storm off the North Carolina coast, during which the vessel sprang a leak and was in imminent peril of being lost when rescued by the cutter, the mutiny of the seamen being charged by the master as a cause of this disaster, William Douglas, John Rigan and Charles J. McArthur, colored seamen, shipped in New York September 19, for the voyage to Charleston, S. C., and returned, were arrested on the vessel in the harbor here to-day by a United States deputy marshal and a crew from the cutter Seminole. The men were lodged in the county jail for hearing before the commissioner November 10.

TWO ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF VIOLATING GAME LAW

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Fredericksburg, Nov. 6.—George Whitner, of Washington, and Mr. Hughes, of Mt. Airy, Md., were arrested last evening at the station here on the charge of violating game laws. Those men had been staying in Stafford county several days and had been hunting, having first obtained a State license to hunt. They left their guns as collateral for the payment of licenses, and were then permitted to go on their journey.

INAUGURAL FETE MARKED BY POMP

Amid Blare of Trumpets and Flash of Arms Rebel Chief Takes Office.

Mexico City, November 6.—With all the pomp and ceremony, the glitter of arms and the blare of trumpets so beloved by the Latin races, Francisco I. Madero was to-day inaugurated President of the republic of Mexico, amid the cheers of thousands who lined the streets to watch his carriage pass.

It is probable that never in the history of the world has a President of a country the size of Mexico ascended the seat of government in face of greater opposition.

Alleged conspirators of three different plots are to-day lodged in prisons. General Bernardino Reyes, the aged idol, is in exile in San Antonio, awaiting only the fullest of time to step forward and lead a counter-revolution against the man who overthrew Diaz, Guatemala, on the south, threatened by war, and the treasury is well-nigh bankrupt.

But in spite of all these obstacles, Madero to-day assumed the reins of power, and in a triumphal proclamation issued just after his inauguration, promised peace to Mexico.

Surrounded by thousands of troops, whose uniforms showed only faintly the effects of their long campaigning against the Chinapa Indians in the south and the Zapatistas in the north, Madero drove down the main decorated streets, beneath triumphal arches, to the Chamber of Deputies, where at noon he delivered his inaugural address.

Stenner Clyde Flashed on Rock.

St. John, N. H., November 6.—After being ashore for more than a day and a half on a rock near the mouth of the harbor at Little Bay, on the northeast coast of Newfoundland, the steamer Clyde was floated at daybreak to-day by the British cruiser Brilliant. The Clyde was apparently undamaged and will resume the coastal service immediately.

Speaker Cox Dies Suddenly.

Pittsburgh, Pa., November 6.—John F. Cox, Speaker of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, and one of the best known members of the Allegheny county, Pa., died suddenly at his home in Homestead, a suburb, to-day.

Twenty-Two Lost With Vessel.

London, November 6.—The Greek steamer Lord Byron, from Theodosia for Antwerp, foundered in the English Channel during the gale last night. Twenty-two of her crew of twenty-five were lost. The three saved were picked up by the Dutch steamer Grotius.

AGED CITIZEN DIES AT PETERSBURG

Charles H. Pyle, Prominent Business Man, Passes Away.

HUNTER ACCIDENTALLY SHOT

Quiet Election To-Day Indicated.

Council Will Meet To-Night.

Times-Dispatch Bureau.

109 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., November 6.

Charles H. Pyle, head of the firm of Pyle & Company (Inc.), the largest land and real estate firm in the city, died at his home on High Street this morning after about a week's illness.

Mr. Pyle was in the eighty-first year of his age, having been born in Amity, Bucks county, Pa., on June 4, 1831. He came to Petersburg in 1855, directly after the close of the war, and had been a resident of the city ever since. He was active in business up to the time of his illness. Owing to his wide acquaintance in the South and Northwest, to which he made yearly business trips, Mr. Pyle was instrumental in bringing more good settlers to Southside Virginia than probably any other man. He established the first Bohemian colony in Prince George.

At one time he was a member of the Petersburg and by two anti-slavery societies, Mr. Pyle was a good man and a valuable citizen, and was universally esteemed. He is survived by two daughters—Mrs. R. W. Bagwell, of New Canton, Buckingham county, and Mrs. W. Perkins, of Marmora, Dinwiddie county, and by two sons—H. G. Hunter, of Philadelphia, and Miss Hattie Pyle, of this city. The funeral will take place from Tabb Street Presbyterian Church Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, and the burial will be in Blanford Cemetery.

Miss Barbara E. Dyson.

Twenty-one years, daughter of Mrs. L. A. Dyson, of Matoaca, died at an early hour this morning at her home in that village. She had been in declining health for some time, was much esteemed in the community and is survived by her mother and one sister.

Accidentally and Badly Shot.

W. E. Bracey, a conductor on the street car line, was very badly injured this morning by accidental shooting, and very narrowly escaped death. Taking his gun with him he went out to hunt for a fox on the Fernside Park line for a hunt. The gun was loaded with No. 4 shot, and in handling the weapon, with his left hand covering the muzzle, he accidentally caused its discharge. The load tore through his hand and the left side of his face, causing a ghastly wound. Mr. Bracey was at once hurried to the hospital, and placed under treatment. His injuries are thought to be very serious.

Mr. Bracey was standing on the front platform at the time of the accident, the stock of the gun resting on the floor. It is said that he did not know the gun was loaded, and that he had struck in his chin it would have blown the top of his head off.

A Quiet Election.
